

Beverly Shaffer Fonds

<https://www.cjhn.ca/en/permalink/cjhn16717>

Collection: Beverly Shaffer Fonds
Description Level: Fonds
Material Format: multiple media
Physical Description: 6 film reels ; 2 folders of textual material

Scope and Content:

Contains 6 film reels, mainly from the Children of Canada Series but also "Bioethics: Who Should Decide?" Also contains accompanying textual material for classroom and promotional use.

Date: 1977-1986 (predominant 1977)
Fonds No.: 1070
Storage Location: JPL
2-6C
2-6D
2-6G

Creator: National Film Board of Canada

History Biographical:

Oscar-winning director Beverly Shaffer (I'll Find a Way: Best Live Action Short, 1978) was born in Montreal, earning degrees from McGill and Macdonald College. She began working for the National Film Board under the Studio D project in 1975, directing for the next ten years all of the "Children in Canada" series films, which included "I'll Find a Way". Other notable films by Ms. Shaffer include "Mr. Mergler's Gift" (2005) and the 1999 follow-up to "I'll Find a Way", "It's Just a Wedding".

Custodial History: Transferred directly from Beverly Shaffer to the JPL-A

Name Access: Shaffer, Beverly (1945 -)
National Film Board of Canada

Subjects: Documentary films - Canada.
Filmmakers.

Archival /
Genealogical: Archival Descriptions

Repository: Jewish Public Library Archives