

COHEN, Samuel David.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn147>

Collection: COHEN, Samuel David.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.1 metres of textual records.

Portée et contenu:

Canadian Jewish Congress reports on public relations to combat anti-Semitism. Signed replies from delegates to Canadian Jewish Congress 1934 (form letters only). Canadian Jewish Congress correspondence and minutes. Cercle juif de la Langue français reports, etc.

Dates ultimes: 1934-1959.

No du fonds: P0039

Notice biographique
/ histoire
administrative:

Samuel David Cohen was one of the founders of Canadian Jewish Congress in 1919 and among those who reorganized it in 1934; was Director of United Talmud Torahs of Montreal; was joint secretary of 1919 Canadian Jewish Congress convention and secretary of Canadian Jewish Congress Eastern Division after 1934 reorganization; was Chairman of Canadian Jewish Congress Boycott Committee which did much to lessen Nazi commercial and political influence in Canada; was chairman of the Committee on Relations with French Canadians of Canadian Jewish Congress and was involved with CJC's Cercle juif de la Langue français; was secretary of Ukrainian War Orphans Committee; was executive director of Retail Women's Wear Association of Montreal and editor of its magazine

Notes:

English and French.1 correspondence file Canadian Jewish Congress; 1 file Canadian Jewish Congress minutes.Canadian Jewish Congress Records Series ZA (Chronological files).

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives