

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

DAVIES, Raymond Arthur.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn152>

Collection: DAVIES, Raymond Arthur.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.12 metres of textual records.

Portée et contenu:

Telegraphic reports from U.S.S.R. during wartime and conditions of Jewish population there.
Correspondence about speaking tour under auspices of Canadian Jewish Congress.
Biographical press clippings about his imprisonment for fraud and about his speaking tour.
Portraits and printing plates of R.A. Davies.

Dates ultimes: 1944-1985.

No du fonds: P0044

Notice biographique
/ histoire
administrative:

Raymond Arthur Davies was a journalist, an author and a public speaker. As a freelance journalist, he covered the Spanish Civil War and as a Moscow correspondent covered World War II. At end of war, he helped Jewish survivors to immigrate to Canada. He died in 1985.

Notes:

Mostly originals, press clippings.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives