

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

FREIMAN, Archibald J.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn165>

Collection: FREIMAN, Archibald J.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.07 metres of textual records.

Portée et contenu:

Press clippings: biographical and on Zionism. Published articles and correspondence on Zionism and Jewish immigration to Canada. Published tributes to A.J. Freiman.

Dates ultimes: 1921-1944.

No du fonds: P0059

Notice biographique

/ histoire

administrative:

Archibald J. Freiman was born in 1880. He was a dominant leader in Canadian Jewish life between the two World Wars. He was National President of the Zionist Organization of Canada and a recognized spokesman for his people at the seats of government. He was Jewish Canada's representative in the Council of World Jewish Organization. Under his leadership Zionism was a way of life for two generations of Canadian Jewry. He was one of Canada's leading merchants. He died in 1944.

Notes:

1 correspondence file. Press clippings and copies.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives