

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

ROBINSON, Benjamin.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn231>

Collection: ROBINSON, Benjamin.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.1 metres of textual records. - 13 photographs. - 3 artefacts.

Portée et contenu:

Documents, notices, testimonial, and messages of congratulations on his appointment as judge. B.A. diploma, Harvard, 1915. Invitations. Clippings.

Dates ultimes: 1915-1960.

No du fonds: P0125

Notice biographique

/ histoire

administrative:

Benjamin Robinson was born in Kovl, Russia, and raised in the United States. After graduating from McGill University, he settled in Montreal. Robinson was president of the Montreal Advocates Benevolent Society, Jewish Immigrant Aid Society, and honorary vice-president of Canadian Jewish Congress. His wife Antonia (Tony) was also very involved in the Jewish community. A successful attorney, he was the second Jew to be appointed judge of the Quebec Superior Court for the District of Montreal in 1960.

Notes:

P86/10.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives