

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

SAALHEIMER, Manfred.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn239>

Collection: SAALHEIMER, Manfred.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.1 metres of textual records.

Portée et contenu:

Programs, minutes, membership lists of organizations in which he was active. Articles in Food for Thought. Articles in Information and Comment. Correspondence. Reports and articles about Human Rights Commission. Minutes and workshop reports on intergroup relations

Dates ultimes: 1942-1967.

No du fonds: P0133

Notice biographique
/ histoire
administrative:

Manfred Saalheimer was born in Wuersburg, Germany, in 1906 where he was educated and practised law until 1933; he did community work in Germany until World War II, when he escaped to England and later came to Canada; joined Canadian Jewish Congress in 1942 and remained on staff until his death in 1967; he represented Canadian Jewish Congress at many conferences; was Canadian director, United Restitution Organization; associate director, National Joint Community Relations Committee; was a member of the Montreal Section of the International Law Association, Canada Foundation, Canadian Welfare Council, B'nai Brith and Reconstructionist Synagogue. He died in 1967 in Montreal.

Notes:

4 boxes of staff records in Canadian Jewish Congress collection (DA 4). See also United Restitution Organization collection.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives