

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

SPIER, Jack.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn250>

Collection: SPIER, Jack.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.3 metres of textual records. - 5 artefacts.

Portée et contenu:

Biographical data and exhibition information on approximately 425 Canadian Jewish artists, filed on index cards. One 4-piece sculpture (wood, cloth, mechanical parts) of a Klezmer musical band, and 1 individual sculpture of a fiddler, stored in artifact collection.

No du fonds: P0144

Notice biographique

/ histoire

administrative:

Jack Spier was born in 1912. He was a philatelist by profession. For many years Jack Spier collected information on Canadian Jewish artists in the hopes of eventually publishing a directory on this subject. After his death, this information was further organized by his daughter, Susan Spier. Jack Spier also created automated musical sculptures as a hobby. He died in 1986 in Montreal.

Notes:

P88/03/08, P88/07/07, P89/07/12, P90/06/20. There are computerized listings for the artist files. General Canadian Jewish Congress documentation collection files (ZB) on individual artists.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives