

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

KENERER ADLER [newspaper].

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn44>

Collection: KENERER ADLER [newspaper].

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 0.25 metres of textual records. - 141 photographs.

Portée et contenu:

Letters patent of incorporation. Board of Directors books of minutes. Stock certificates. Embossing machine with seal. Appraisals of machines and equipment. Several copies of the paper from the 1940s. Press clippings and correspondence pertaining to resurrection of the paper. 141 portrait photographs used in the newspaper, mostly dating from the 1950s to 1970s.

Dates ultimes: 1913-1988.

No du fonds: I0042

Notice biographique
/ histoire
administrative:

Montreal's Keneder Adler (Jewish Daily Eagle) was founded by Zvi Hirsch (Harry) Wolofsky in 1907. The first issue, August 30, consisted of 8 pages, one in English. For the following 80 years the Keneder Adler was the major expression of Yiddish journalism in the world by advocating high standards, mobilizing excellent journalists and promoting the establishment of a network of model Jewish institutions and schools in Canada.

Notes:

P89/15.Harry (Zvi Hirsch) Wolofsky box, microfilm reels for Keneder Adler (1907-1961), and also one file of photographs in PC 1/1/71.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives