

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

LYUBMAN, Alexander

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn489>

Collection: RUSSIAN JEWISH ARCHIVE PROJECT

Niveau de description: Series

Genre de document: textual record
graphic material

Collation: Env. 0.1 metres of textual records. - 5 photographs. - 1 record in electronic form.

Portée et contenu:

The collection includes approximately 50 manuscripts of works written by Alexander Lyubman on the subject of the Second World War, Israel, and life in Canada. also prose publications and poems written as Alexander Lyubman, and also under his pseudonym Avrum Kravirora. The collection also contains press clippings, including one regarding an interview which he gave to a Russian newspaper in Montreal. There are 2 photographs of his daughters, and photocopies of portrait photographs of the donor. There is 1 CD containing 3 photographs of Alexander Lyubman; 2 in colour and one black and white (jpps, 3000KB).

Dates ultimes: 1996-2013.

No du fonds: 10088

No du série: 52

Notice biographique
/ histoire
administrative:

Alexander Lyubman was born in Bershade (Ukraine) in 1949. In 1967, he completed his studies at a Medical College in Odessa, where he later taught. He was a deputy with regard to the reconstruction of a synagogue in the Ukraine. Soon after his immigration to Montreal, beginning in 2000 he worked as a medication consultant in a pharmacy. In his leisure time he was the leader of a chess club for Jewish children at JIAS Montreal. A writer of poetry and articles, he has been published in the local Russian Jewish newspaper 'The Voice of the Community'.

Histoire de la conservation: Alexander Lyubman donated this collection on Oct.18, 2004.

Notes:

Alpha-numeric designations: P04/01-45.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives