

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

EISEN, Wendy : Soviet Jewry movement research notes.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn318>

Collection: EISEN, Wendy : Soviet Jewry movement research notes.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: Env. 1.2 metres of textual records. - 74 sound elements. - 18 photographs.

Portée et contenu:

3 and a half boxes of research notes collected in preparing the book Count Us In: The Struggle To Free Soviet Jews, A Canadian Perspective, about the history of the Soviet Jewry movement in Canada. These records include interviews with people involved in the movement as well as photographs.

Dates ultimes: 1975-1990.

No du fonds: P0218

Notice biographique / histoire administrative:

Wendy Eisen was born in Toronto and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from McGill University, in Montreal, where she lived until 1981. She is a longtime community leader and was a Soviet Jewry activist, serving as chairman of the Montreal 35s, the Toronto 35s, and the Ontario and National Soviet Jewry Committees of Canadian Jewish Congress. At present, Wendy is the national chair of the Canadian Friends of the Israel Museum. She is the author of Count Us In: The Struggle To Free Soviet Jews, A Canadian Perspective, published in 1995 by Burgher Books in Toronto. She now lives in Toronto.

Histoire de la conservation: The collection was donated by Wendy Eisen on July 17, 2008.

Notes:

P08/15.CJC National Committee for Soviet Jewry files series DA 12.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives