

Réseau canadien du patrimoine juif

SCHWARTZ, Musia = Photos of postwar Germany and Canada.

<https://www.cjhn.ca/fr/permalink/cjhn305>

Collection: SCHWARTZ, Musia = Photos of postwar Germany and Canada.

Niveau de description: Fonds

Collation: 22 records in electronic form.

Portée et contenu:

22 TIFF scans of photos borrowed from her personal album, showing Eschwege DP camp. Glasterhausen orphanage. Hamburg and scenes after immigrating to Montreal. Some are portraits of the donor and some include husband Leon and friends, aunt.

Dates ultimes: 1946-1952.

No du fonds: P0205

Notice biographique
/ histoire
administrative:

Musia Schwartz came to Canada as a war orphan after having lived under a false identity through the war years. She was a student and later close friend of Irving Layton, who dedicated a poem to her For Musia's grandchildren.

Histoire de la conservation: The photos were made available to CJCNA through filmmaker Dov Okouneff, who is also using them in a film. They were donated, with Musia's permission, on June 1, 2002.

Notes:

PCAT, P06/02. Mrs. Schwartz should be notified if used. UJRA - War Orphans collection.

Archives / Archival Descriptions

Généalogie:

Dépôt d'archives: Canadian Jewish Archives